

TRES

Hello, my name is Tres. They call me the Love Monkey. I was rescued from a terrible puppy mill in Kansas. I could tell that the ladies who were looking at me as I went onto the auction block that day were really nice and would save me from a life of continued misery and slavery. So I poured on my best charm and it totally worked. They saved me and I've been here at the shelter showering them with kisses ever since.

When I first got to Hearts United for Animals they took me to the doctor and it was discovered that I had a hip problem due to bad breeding. I had to have a big operation at a university hospital. I was a pathetic sight....I made sure of it so that I could get all the love, attention and treats I possibly could. I hopped around on 3 legs and had to have constant care while I got better. Painful as it was, it did afford me the opportunity to perfect my "Hug Me, Love Me and Kiss Me Now....It's An Emergency!" look that I am so known for.

I'm told that I am a bit quirky. I say nah, it's just Chihuahuatude. Chihuahuatude is described in medical dictionaries and country western songs as the attitude that one is 10-foot tall and bulletproof. I admit I like to put strangers through the paces sometimes. I just want to make sure they are fully worthy of my devotion and adoration. Once they pass the Tres Test though I'm all apologetic and give them the sincerest looks of "aww, I didn't mean it", accompanied by tons of kisses and an invitation to scratch and pet me.

What else can I tell you about ME? Well I'm proud and happy and silly and funny. I march around like a drum major with my head held high and a look that says "I dare you not to love me". I snuggle in the beds with the other dogs here and play tug of war with them. I like to sit on laps and look longingly into the people's eyes.

I was born 4/16/06 so I am catching up on my lost childhood. I'm really having a great time and I can't wait to be in a home of my very own where I can entertain the people and love them all of the time.

If you can provide me with a safe, happy and loving forever home please visit me online and learn how to fill out an application at:
